

Meeting Between Federal Reserve Board Staff and Investor Group Organized by Credit Suisse<sup>1</sup>
September 20, 2010

Participants: Matthew Eichner, Fabio Natalucci, Steve Sharpe, Andreas Lehnert, Nellie Lang, Karen Pence, Song Han, Dan Li and Sebastian Astrada (Federal Reserve Board)

Ira Jersey, Thomas Reohr and Eric Van Nostrand (Credit Suisse); Robert Auwaerter (Vanguard Group); Robert Tipp (Prudential); Matthew Abbott (Wellington); Josh Brodie (Alphadyne Asset Management); Seamus Brown (Moore Capital); Sairah Burki (Capital One); Eric Gould (MEAG New York); Sean Kruzel (JP Morgan); Michael Martini (General Electric); and Eric Stein (Eaton Vance)

Summary: Staff of the Federal Reserve Board met with representatives of Credit Suisse and an investor group organized by Credit Suisse. During the meeting, the participants discussed the Federal Reserve Board's responsibilities under Section 941 of the Dodd-Frank Act. Representatives of Credit Suisse and the investor group shared their overall views on the market for asset-backed securitization and the performance of certain asset classes and securitization models, and the investor group shared their views on the principles of enhanced disclosure, transparency and investor diligence in the issuance of asset-backed securities.

---

<sup>1</sup> This summary has been revised to correct the affiliations and views of the meeting participants.