WHEREAS, it is the common goal of Homestead and the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta (the “Reserve Bank”) to maintain the financial soundness of Homestead so that Homestead may serve as a source of strength to the Bank;

WHEREAS, Homestead and the Reserve Bank have mutually agreed to enter into this Written Agreement (the “Agreement”); and

NOW, THEREFORE, Homestead and the Reserve Bank agree as follows:

Source of Strength

1. The board of directors of Homestead shall take appropriate steps to fully utilize Homestead’s financial and managerial resources, pursuant to section 225.4(a) of Regulation Y of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Board of Governors”) (12 C.F.R. § 225.4(a)), to serve as a source of strength to the Bank, including, but not limited to, taking steps to ensure that the Bank complies with the Consent Order entered into with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency on June 29, 2010 and any other supervisory action taken by the Bank’s federal regulator.

Dividends and Distributions

2. (a) Homestead shall not declare or pay any dividends without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank and the Director of the Division of Banking Supervision and Regulation (the “Director”) of the Board of Governors.

(b) Homestead shall not directly or indirectly take dividends or any other form of payment representing a reduction in capital from the Bank without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank.

(c) Homestead and its nonbank subsidiary shall not make any distributions of interest, principal, or other sums on subordinated debentures or trust preferred securities without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank and the Director.

(d) All requests for prior approval shall be received by the Reserve Bank at least 30 days prior to the proposed dividend declaration date, proposed distribution on

All requests shall contain, at a minimum, current and projected information on Homestead's capital, earnings, and cash flow; the Bank's capital, asset quality, earnings, and allowance for loan and lease losses; and identification of the sources of funds for the proposed payment or distribution. For requests to declare or pay dividends, Homestead must also demonstrate that the requested declaration or payment of dividends is consistent with the Board of Governors' Policy Statement on the Payment of Cash Dividends by State Member Banks and Bank Holding Companies, dated November 14, 1985 (Federal Reserve Regulatory Service, 4-877 at page 4-323).

Debt and Stock Redemption

3. (a) Homestead and its nonbank subsidiary shall not, directly or indirectly, incur, increase, or guarantee any debt without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank. All requests for prior written approval shall contain, but not be limited to, a statement regarding the purpose of the debt, the terms of the debt, and the planned source(s) for debt repayment, and an analysis of the cash flow resources available to meet such debt repayment.

(b) Homestead shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase or redeem any shares of its stock without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank.
