

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

Order Delegating Certain Actions Relating to Savings and Loan Holding Companies

The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (“Dodd-Frank Act”) was enacted on July 21, 2010. Title III of the Dodd-Frank Act transfers to the Board supervisory functions of the Office of Thrift Supervision (“OTS”) related to savings and loan holding companies (“SLHCs”) and their nondepository subsidiaries. With respect to the supervision of those institutions, section 312 of the Dodd-Frank Act (12 U.S.C. § 5412) provides that all functions of the OTS and its director (including authority to issue orders) and OTS rulemaking authority transferred to the Board on July 21, 2011.

Under the Home Owners’ Loan Act (12 U.S.C. § 1461 et seq.) (“HOLA”), the Director of OTS delegated certain responsibilities to other OTS officials or to OTS regional offices. These delegations are included in Chapter V of Title 12, as well as in public and nonpublic orders.

Pursuant to section 11(k) of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. § 248(k)), the Board may delegate by published order or rule any of its functions, other than those relating to rulemaking or pertaining principally to monetary and credit policies, to Board members and employees, Reserve Banks, or administrative law judges. Additionally, pursuant to section 10(b)(2) of HOLA (12 U.S.C. § 1467a(b)(2)), as amended by the Dodd-Frank Act, the Board is authorized to issue such regulations and orders as may be necessary to enable it to administer and carry out the purposes of HOLA and prevent evasions thereof.

Because the delegations set forth in the OTS regulations are specific to the OTS’s structure and operations and do not correspond to the Board’s structure or practices, the Board has eliminated or modified these delegations as part of its implementation of OTS regulations in Regulation LL and MM.¹ This order extends the coverage of delegations found in 12 CFR part 265 of the Board’s regulations, and certain other delegations found in Board orders and Board actions, to actions related to the supervision and regulation of SLHCs. In certain cases, the Board is approving new delegations of authority with respect to actions for which there is no parallel action for bank holding companies.

Appendix A lists delegations in 12 CFR part 265 that will be applied to actions related to SLHCs, either because the delegation is applicable to all entities supervised by the Board or because the Board is extending the delegation to apply to actions related to SLHCs in the same manner that it is applied to bank holding companies. Appendix B lists additional delegations not found in 12 CFR part 265 that the Board will apply to actions relating to SLHCs (including those organized as mutual holding companies). Appendix C contains applicable delegations that are specific to SLHCs organized as mutual holding companies.

The Board may modify or add to these delegations as necessary to effectively administer its obligations under the law.

¹ These regulations will be codified at 12 CFR Parts 238 and 239.

By order of the Board of Governors,² effective August 12, 2011.

Robert deV. Frierson (signed)

Robert deV. Frierson

Deputy Secretary of the Board

² Voting for this action: Chairman Bernanke, Vice Chair Yellen, and Governors Duke, Tarullo, and Raskin.
