Amended

WHEREAS, Deutsche Bank AG, Frankfurt am Main, Germany (the “Bank”) is a foreign bank as defined in section 1(b)(7) of the International Banking Act (12 U.S.C. § 3101(7)) that controls a large complex financial organization that consists of a number of separate business lines and legal entities in many countries around the world (together with its branches and subsidiaries, “Deutsche Bank”);

WHEREAS, Deutsche Bank conducts operations in the United States through DB USA Corporation (“DBUSA”), a U.S. bank holding company, which became the Bank’s U.S. intermediate bank holding company in July 2016, and is located in New York, New York, Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch (the “Branch”), a branch in New York, New York, and other offices and subsidiaries;

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Board of Governors”) is the appropriate federal supervisor in the United States of Deutsche Bank, DBUSA, and the Branch;

WHEREAS, the Bank oversees compliance, risk management, and audit procedures for entities within the Deutsche Bank organization;

WHEREAS, Deutsche Bank serves as a foreign exchange (“FX”) dealer, both in the United States and in its offices abroad, by buying and selling U.S. dollars and foreign currency for its own account and by soliciting and receiving orders through communications between customers and sales personnel that are executed in the FX market (“Covered FX Activities”);

WHEREAS, in soliciting and receiving orders from customers in its Covered FX Activities, personnel of Deutsche Bank may provide customers with, among other things, price quotes for specific prospective transactions and the prices and amounts of currency purchased or sold in trades based on customers’ orders;

WHEREAS, in addition to soliciting and receiving orders from customers in its Covered FX Activities, Deutsche Bank engages in other trading activities and related sales activities involving FX, including FX trading where a customer directly inputs an order through an electronic platform, and in wholesale markets for commodities and interest rate products where Deutsche Bank acts as principal, prices and rates are or can be influenced by industry benchmark prices or rates, and compliance and control risk factors and vulnerabilities are similar to those related to Covered FX Activities (together with Covered FX Activities, “Designated Market Activities”);

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors expects Deutsche Bank to have an effective and comprehensive compliance risk management framework that includes strong governance over compliance risk at all levels of management, appropriate policies and procedures, rigorous surveillance and escalation mechanisms, and staff training programs that thoroughly address compliance risks;

WHEREAS, Deutsche Bank has conducted a review of its Covered FX Activities occurring from October 2008 through October 2013 (the “Review Period”), has identified and reported relevant conduct to the Board of Governors and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (“Reserve Bank”), has fully cooperated with the Board of Governors and the Reserve Bank and has made and continues to make progress in implementing enhancements to its firm-wide compliance systems and controls that are designed to address deficiencies in its Covered FX Activities;

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors has been conducting an investigation into the practices of Deutsche Bank relating to FX activities;

WHEREAS, during the Review Period:

A. Deutsche Bank lacked adequate governance, risk management, compliance, and audit policies and procedures to ensure that Deutsche Bank’s Covered FX Activities complied with safe and sound banking practices and applicable internal policies;

B. FX traders in the spot market at Deutsche Bank routinely communicated with FX traders at other financial institutions through chatrooms on electronic messaging platforms accessible by traders at multiple institutions;

C. Deutsche Bank’s deficient policies and procedures prevented it from detecting and addressing unsafe and unsound conduct by certain of its FX traders, including in communications by traders in multibank chatrooms, consisting of:

(i) disclosures of trading positions and, on some occasions, discussions of coordinated trading strategies with traders of other institutions;

(ii) discussions about possible FX benchmark fix-related trading with traders of other institutions;

(iii) attempts to influence contributions to submission-based foreign currency benchmarks in certain emerging market currencies in order to possibly benefit Deutsche Bank, both within Deutsche Bank and with traders of other institutions;

(iv) discussions by a Deutsche Bank trader regarding bid/offer spreads offered to FX customers for FX non-deliverable forward contracts with traders of other institutions in an emerging market currency; and

(v) discussions on trading in a manner to trigger or defend certain FX barrier options within Deutsche Bank, in order to benefit Deutsche Bank; and

D. As a result of the deficient policies and procedures described above during the Review Period, Deutsche Bank engaged in unsafe and unsound banking practices;

WHEREAS, to address the deficiencies described above, Deutsche Bank has made and must continue to implement additional improvements in its oversight, internal controls, compliance, risk management and audit programs for Designated Market Activities in order to comply with Deutsche Bank policies, safe and sound banking practices, and applicable U.S. laws and regulations;

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors, the Reserve Bank, and Deutsche Bank have the common goal to ensure that Deutsche Bank conducts its activities in a safe and sound manner and complies with U.S. laws, rules, and regulations that apply to the activities of the Deutsche Bank organization, and that Deutsche Bank fosters a strong commitment towards compliance;

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors is issuing this Consent Order to Cease and Desist and Assessment of Civil Money Penalty (“Order”);

WHEREAS, pursuant to delegated authority, the undersigned signatories for the Bank, DBUSA, and the Branch are authorized to enter into this Order on behalf of the Bank, DBUSA, or the Branch, respectively, and consent to compliance with each and every provision of this Order by the Bank, DBUSA and the Branch, respectively, and to waive any and all rights that each may have pursuant to section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the “FDI Act”) (12 U.S.C. § 1818), including, but not limited to: (i) the issuance of a notice of charges on any matters set forth in this Order; (ii) a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence on any matters set forth in this Order; (iii) judicial review of this Order; and (iv) challenge or contest, in any manner, the basis, issuance, validity, terms, effectiveness or enforceability of the Order or any provision hereof;
