Deposit Insurance Act, as Amended

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Board of Governors”), pursuant to sections 8(e) and 8(i)(3) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the “FDI Act”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 1818(e) and 1818(i)(3), issues this Order of Prohibition (“Order”) upon the consent of Respondent Tracy L. Mallory (“Mallory”), a former employee and institution-affiliated party, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(i)(3) of the FDI Act, 12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(i)(3), of Regions Bank (“Regions” or the “Bank”), a state-member bank;

WHEREAS, on March 27, 2020 the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (P.L. 116-136, the “CARES Act”) was signed into law, providing emergency financial assistance to individuals, families, and businesses negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic;

WHEREAS, section 1110 of the CARES Act expanded the U.S. Small Business Administration’s (the “SBA”) economic injury disaster loan (“EIDL”) and EIDL grant program to borrowers negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic;

WHEREAS, in order to obtain an EIDL or grant, borrowers were required to submit an application to the SBA and sign a loan authorization agreement under penalty of perjury certifying compliance with all EIDL requirements, providing information, such as average monthly payroll expenses and number of employees, and agreeing that loan proceeds would be used for specifically authorized purposes;

WHEREAS, Mallory, between July 2020 and October 2020 (the “Relevant Period”), while employed as a branch manager of the Bank, based at its East Albany Branch, in Albany, Georgia, applied for and obtained an EIDL of $11,600 and an EIDL grant of $10,000 from the SBA based on materially false and fraudulent representations and used the proceeds of the grant and loan for personal and other expenses in violation of the terms of the EIDL and applicable laws and regulations;

WHEREAS, Mallory had a financial gain of $21,600, representing the EIDL and EIDL grant proceeds, resulting from her misconduct during the Relevant Period; and

WHEREAS, by affixing his signature hereunder, Mallory has consented to the issuance of this Order by the Board of Governors and has agreed to comply with each and every provision of this Order, and has waived any and all rights she might have pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818, 12 C.F.R. Part 263, or otherwise: (a) to the issuance of a notice of intent to prohibit on any other matter implied or set forth in this Order; (b) to a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence with respect to any matter implied or set forth in this Order; (c) to obtain judicial review of this Order or any provision hereof; and (d) to challenge or contest in any manner the basis, issuance, terms, validity, effectiveness, or enforceability of this Order or any provision hereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, before the filing of any notices, or the taking of any testimony or adjudication of or finding on any issue of fact or law herein, and without Mallory admitting or denying any allegation made or implied by the Board of Governors in connection herewith, and solely for the purpose of settlement of this matter without a formal proceeding being filed and without the necessity for protracted litigation or extended hearings,
