Docket No. 22-033-E-I

Order of Prohibition Issued Upon Consent Pursuant to Section 8(e) of the Federal Deposit Insurance
Act, as Amended

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Board of Governors”), pursuant to sections 8(e) and 8(i)(3) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the “FDI Act”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 1818(e) and 1818(i)(3), issues this Order of Prohibition (“Order”) upon the consent of Respondent Jamar Whitfield (“Whitfield”), a former employee and institution-affiliated party, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(i)(3) of the FDI Act, 12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(i)(3), of Regional Acceptance Corporation, Greenville, North Carolina (“RAC”), a nonbank subsidiary of Truist Financial Corporation (the “Bank”), a bank holding company;

WHEREAS, on March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (P.L. 116-136, the “CARES Act”) was signed into law, providing emergency financial assistance to individuals, families, and businesses negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic;

WHEREAS, the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”), established by the U.S. Small Business Administration (the “SBA”) pursuant to the CARES Act, provided SBA-guaranteed, low-interest loans to small businesses and other eligible entities that under certain circumstances could be fully or partially forgiven;

WHEREAS, in order to obtain a PPP loan, borrowers were required to submit an application to the SBA, under penalty of perjury, certifying compliance with all PPP requirements, providing information, such as average monthly payroll expenses and number of employees, and agreeing that loan proceeds would be used for specifically authorized purposes;

WHEREAS, during June and July 2020, Whitfield, while employed as a Collections Team Leader at RAC in Arlington, Texas, applied for and obtained a $20,833 PPP loan based on materially false and fraudulent representations and used the funds for personal and other unauthorized expenses in violation of the terms of the loans and applicable laws and regulations;

WHEREAS, Whitfield's conduct was contrary to the Bank's internal policies and constituted violations of law or regulation, unsafe or unsound banking practices, or breaches of fiduciary duty;

WHEREAS, Whitfield had a financial gain of $20,833, representing the PPP loan proceeds, resulting from his misconduct, and, to date, Whitfield has repaid approximately $7,300 of the PPP loan;

WHEREAS, by affixing his signature hereunder, Whitfield has consented to the issuance of this Order by the Board of Governors and has agreed to comply with each and every provision of this Order, and has waived any and all rights he might have pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818, 12 C.F.R. Part 263, or otherwise: (a) to the issuance of a notice of intent to prohibit on any other matter implied or set forth in this Order; (b) to a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence with respect to any matter implied or set forth in this Order; (c) to obtain judicial review of this Order or any provision hereof; and (d) to challenge or contest in any manner the basis, issuance, terms, validity, effectiveness, or enforceability of this Order or any provision hereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, before the filing of any notices, or the taking of any testimony or adjudication of or finding on any issue of fact or law herein, and without Whitfield admitting or denying any allegation made or implied by the Board of Governors in connection herewith, and solely for the purpose of settlement of this matter without a formal proceeding being filed and without the necessity for protracted litigation or extended hearings,
