Meeting Between Staff of the Federal Reserve Board and Representatives of the European Banking Federation June 18, 2026

Participants: Mark Van Der Weide, Mark Buresh, Asad Kudiya, Lucy Chang, Kelley O'Mara, Laura Bain, and Greg Frischmann (Federal Reserve Board)

Sebastien de Brouwer (European Banking Federation); Johan Thostrup (Finance Denmark); Joerg Riegl (Societe Generale); Chad Ramey (BNP Paribas); Ryan Gilinson and Joseph Silverberg (Deutsche Bank); John Longobardo (Credit Agricole); Dan Constantin (Association of German Banks)

Summary: Staff of the Federal Reserve Board met with representatives of the European Banking Federation and member entities (collectively, the "European Banking Federation") to discuss various topics. The discussion included, but was not limited to, the agencies' Basel III notice of proposed rulemaking (Basel III proposal), and the agencies' standardized approach for risk-weighted assets notice of proposed rulemaking (standardized proposal). With respect to the Basel III proposal and the standardized proposal, the European Banking Federation representatives discussed the potential impacts of the proposals, with a focus on elements of the proposals that might have particular or outsized impacts on foreign banks operating in the United States.
