Annual Company-Run Stress Test Report For State Member Banks, Bank Holding Companies, and Savings and Loan Holding Companies with Total Consolidated Assets Greater Than $10 Billion and Less Than $50 Billion

Reporting Form FR Y-16

Effective for the Annual Report Submission Beginning on July 31, 2016

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF

Annual Company-Run Stress Test Report For State Member Banks, Bank Holding Companies, and Savings and Loan Holding Companies with Total Consolidated Assets Greater Than $10 Billion and Less Than $50 Billion FR Y-16

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The Annual Dodd Frank Act (DFA) Company-Run Stress Testing Report (FR Y-16 report) collects detailed data on State Member Banks' (SMBs), Bank Holding Companies' (BHCs) and Savings and Loan Holding Companies' (SLHCs)¹ quantitative projections of income, losses, assets, liabilities, and capital across a range of macroeconomic and financial scenarios as well as the qualitative supporting information on the methodologies and processes used to develop those internal projections. Further information regarding the requirements of the qualitative supporting information is provided in Appendix A. The Federal Reserve Board (FRB) will provide details about the macroeconomic scenarios to the SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs.

Who Must Report

Reporting Criteria

BHCs or SLHCs with total consolidated assets greater than $10 billion but less than $50 billion that are subject to the FRB's stress test rules (12 CFR part 252, subpart B), and any affiliated or unaffiliated SMBs with total consolidated assets of more than $10 billion but less than $50 billion (excluding SMB subsidiaries of covered companies, as defined by the final stress test rule 12 CFR part 252, subpart F) must file the FR Y-16.²

1. SLHCs that are subject to minimum regulatory capital requirements and exceed the asset threshold for the first time on or before March 31, 2015, must comply with the company-run stress test requirements beginning on January 1, 2017, unless that time is extended by the FRB in writing. SLHCs substantially engaged in commercial or insurance underwriting activities are exempt from the requirements until the Board establishes a final capital rule. If the Board issued the rule or order on or before March of the previous year, the stress test requirements would have been effective on January 1 of a given year, unless the time was accelerated or extended by the Board in writing.

2. "Covered companies" are defined as BHCs with at least $50 billion

The FRB's final stress test rule defines total consolidated assets as the average of the institution's total consolidated assets over the four most recent consecutive quarters as reported on the respondent's Consolidated Financial Statements for Holding Companies (FR Y-9C: OMB No. 7100-0128) or Consolidated Report of Condition and Income (Call Report FFIEC 031 or FFIEC 041: OMB No. 7100-0036). Per the final stress test rule, if the institution has not filed a FR Y-9C or Call Report for each of the four most recent consecutive quarters, the average of the institution's total consolidated assets in the most recent quarter or consecutive quarters as reported on the FR Y-9C or Call Report should be used in the calculation.

Compliance after 3/31/15

A BHC, SLHC that is subject to minimum regulatory capital requirements, or SMB that exceeds the asset threshold for the first time on or before March 31 of a given year must comply with the company-run stress test requirements, beginning on January 1 of the following year, unless that time is extended by the FRB in writing. Similarly, a BHC, SLHC that is subject to minimum regulatory capital requirements, or SMB that exceeds the asset threshold for the first time after March 31 of a given year must comply with the company-run stress test requirements, beginning on January 1 of the second year following that given year, unless that time is extended by the FRB in writing.

For example, if an institution reported $9.5 billion in total consolidated assets as reported on Schedule HC of its FR Y-9C as of June 30 and September 30, 2015 and $11 billion as of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2016, the average total assets over the four-quarter period is calculated as $10.25 billion and the institution would meet the

in total consolidated assets and nonbank systemically important financial institutions, subject to annual supervisory stress tests and semiannual company-run stress tests.

requirement to conduct its first stress test for the 2017 stress test cycle commencing on January 1, 2017 and reporting in July 2017.

For example, if an institution reported $9.5 billion in total consolidated assets as reported on Schedule HC of its FR Y-9C as of September 30 and December 31, 2015, and $11 billion as of March 31 and June 30, 2016, the average total assets over the four-quarter period is calculated as $10.25 billion and the institution would meet the requirement to conduct its first stress test for the 2018 stress test cycle commencing on January 1, 2018 and reporting in July 2018.

Once an institution meets the asset threshold, the company will remain subject to the final stress test rule requirements unless and until the total consolidated assets (not average assets) of the company are less than $10 billion for each of four consecutive quarters as reported on the FR Y-9C or Call Report, as applicable (measured on the as-of date of the fourth consecutive FR Y-9C or Call Report). An institution that has reduced its total consolidated assets below $10 billion for four consecutive quarters will again become subject to the requirements of this rule if it meets the asset threshold at a later date.

Shifts in Reporting

If a BHC, SLHC, or SMB filing the report reaches total consolidated assets of $50 billion or more, as defined by the stress testing final rule (12 CFR 225.8), the institution will need to refer to reporting requirements for the FR Y-14 series to determine applicability.

Exemptions

SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs that do not meet the reporting criteria listed above are exempt from reporting. Foreign banking organizations are also exempt from FR Y-16 reporting.

Where to Submit the Report

The agencies' close collaboration in developing a streamlined and simplified DFA stress test regulatory report will facilitate a uniform electronic collection process for all companies. All companies should submit their completed reports electronically through Reporting Central, the Federal Reserve's electronic reports submission application. Reporting Central is a central point of entry for Federal Reserve, FFIEC, and Treasury Department for certain electronic reports submission and file uploads, and is a system many institutions already use for other regulatory reports. Per each agency's final stress test rules, each primary federal regulator will have access to their respective institutions' submissions.

For general Reporting Central procedures and information, companies should contact the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank or access the link below. www.frb services.org/centralbank/reportingcentral/index.html

For instructions on how to create and submit the FR Y-16 report, companies should contact the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank or access the link below.

https://www.frb services.org/files/reporting/pdf/fry16_fdic_dfast_transfer_guide.pdf

Companies must submit the qualitative supporting information in Adobe Acrobat PDF format. For requirements regarding the submission of these items, see Appendix A of these instructions.

When to Submit the Report

The FR Y-16 report is required to be submitted using financial information as of December 31. The report submission due date is the close of business July 31 of each calendar year unless that time is extended by the FRB in writing. Close of business is defined as 5:00 P.M., local time of the responsible Reserve Bank. The term "submission date" is defined as the date by which the Federal Reserve must receive the institution's FR Y-16.

If the submission deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the report must be received on the first business day after the weekend or holiday. Earlier submission aids the Federal Reserve in reviewing and processing reports and is encouraged.

Organization of the Report

General Information

The annual company-run DFA stress tests will cover a nine-quarter planning horizon beginning on the first day of a stress test cycle (on January 1) and use financial information as of December 31 of a reporting year (for a total of ten quarters of information reported). SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs will report on the FR Y-16 their quantitative projections of losses, resources available to absorb those losses, balance sheet positions, and capital composition on a quarterly basis over the duration of the scenarios and planning horizon. The FRB will provide details about the macroeconomic scenarios to the SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs.

The FR Y-16 is organized into the following sections:

A. Scenario Variables Schedule

B. Results Schedule

- a. Summary Schedule
- b. Baseline Scenario
 - i. Income Statement
 - ii. Balance Sheet Statement
- c. Adverse Scenario
 - i. Income Statement
 - ii. Balance Sheet Statement
- d. Severely Adverse Scenario
 - i. Income Statement
 - ii. Balance Sheet Statement

C. Appendix A - Qualitative Supporting Information

In addition to the projections collected on the FR Y-16, SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs are also required to submit summary qualitative information supporting their projections. The report of the results of the stress test must include, under the baseline, adverse, and severely adverse scenarios: a description of the types of risks included in the stress test, a summary description of the methodologies used in the stress test, an explanation of the most significant causes for the changes in regulatory capital ratios, and the use of the stress test results. Please see Appendix A for more details.

How to Prepare the Reports

A. Applicability of U.S. GAAP

SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs are required to prepare and file the FR Y-16 schedules in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and these instructions. The financial records of the SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs should be maintained in such a manner and scope to ensure the FR Y-16 is prepared in accordance with these instructions and reflects a fair presentation of the SMBs', BHCs', and SLHCs' financial condition and assessment of performance under stressed scenarios.

B. Rules of Consolidation

Respondents should reference the FR Y-9C or Call Report for general instructions on the rules of consolidation. Unless otherwise noted, items map directly to the respondent's FR Y-9C or Call Report for the actual quarterly data provided for December 31 of the reporting year while all remaining quarterly data over the nine-quarter horizon are based on the institution's quarterly projections.

C. Projections

The report includes one quarter of actual data followed by nine quarters of projected data. The "planning horizon" refers to the nine quarters of projected data, starting with the first quarter following the actual data, which would be the first quarter of the following year, or March 31st. Column headings refer to each corresponding quarter.

D. Order of Precedence

If there is a conflict in guidance, SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs should first use the information contained in these instructions and then the instructions available in the latest FR Y-9C or Call Report.

E. Technical Details

The following instructions apply generally to the FR Y-16, unless otherwise specified.

- a. Report income and loss data on a quarterly basis and not on a cumulative or year-to-date basis.
- b. Ensure that any internal consistency checks are complete prior to submission.
- c. A numerical value or zero should generally be entered for all items, except in those cases where other options such as "not available" or "other" are specified. If information is not available or not applicable and no such options are offered, the field should be left blank. Or if there are no data for certain fields then populate them with a zero, "0".
- d. MDRM codes and formulas are provided in the 'FFIEC 031 or 041 Call Report Item' column and the 'FR Y-9C Report Item' column for most line items. Definitions in the Call Report and FR Y-9C for those items should be used.

General Instructions

F. Rounding

All dollar amounts must be reported in thousands, with the figures rounded to the nearest thousand. Rounding could result in details not adding to their stated totals. However, to ensure consistent reporting, the rounded detail items should be adjusted so that the totals and the sums of their components are identical.

G. Negative Entries

Negative entries are generally not appropriate on the FR Y-16 balance sheet and should not be reported. Hence, assets with credit balances must be reported in liability items and liabilities with debit balances must be reported in asset items, as appropriate, and in accordance with these instructions. When negative entries do occur in one or more of these items, they should be recorded with a minus (-) sign rather than in parentheses.

H. Confidentiality

As these data will be collected as part of the supervisory process, they are subject to confidential treatment under exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(8)). In addition, the information contained in this report may be exempt from disclosure under Exemption 4.5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4). Disclosure determinations would be made on a case-by-case basis.

I. Amended Reports

When the Federal Reserve's interpretation of how GAAP or these instructions should be applied to a specified event or transaction (or series of related events or transactions) differs from the reporting institution's interpretation, the Federal Reserve may require the institution to reflect the event(s) or transaction(s) in its FR Y-16 in accordance with the Federal Reserve's interpretation and to amend previously submitted reports. The Federal Reserve will consider the materiality of such event(s) or transaction(s) in making a determination about requiring the institution to apply the Federal Reserve's interpretation and to amend previously submitted reports. Materiality is a qualitative characteristic of accounting information which is defined in FASB Concepts No. 2 as "the magnitude of an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in the light of surrounding circumstances, make it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would have been changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement."

The Federal Reserve may require the filing of an amended FR Y-16 if previously submitted reports contain significant errors. In addition, an institution should file an amended report when internal or external auditors make audit adjustments that result in a restatement of financial statements previously submitted to the Federal Reserve.

For further information regarding FR Y-16 amended reports, please see the Amended Reports section in the general instructions of the FR Y-9C.

If resubmissions are required, institutions should contact the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank.

J. Data Items Automatically Retrieved from Other Reports

The actual 12/31 data that is required to be submitted in each schedule requested on the FR Y-16 may also be collected in other reports submitted to the Federal Reserve. If the institution files the other reports at the same level of consolidation as is required for the FR Y-16, the duplicate data items do not need to be reported and may be left blank on the FR Y-16 form. For SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs, the data will be collected from the FR Y-9C or Call Report.

However, the actual 12/31 data for certain line items do not map to existing MDRM codes in the FR Y-9C or Call Report. Institutions will need to report the actual 12/31 data for the following line items for each scenario:

- Income statement memoranda line items 26-31, 32-37, and 38-43 for all reporters
- Balance sheet line items 32, 33, and 35 for BHCs and SLHCs

K. Questions

Questions and requests for interpretations of matters appearing in any part of these instructions should be addressed to the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank (that is, the Federal Reserve Bank in the district where the institution submits this report).

General Instructions

SCENARIO VARIABLES SCHEDULE

To conduct the stress test required, a SMB, BHC, or SLHC may choose to project additional economic and financial variables beyond the mandatory supervisory scenarios provided to estimate losses or revenues for some or all of its portfolios. The FRB expects a SMB, BHC, or SLHC to ensure that the paths of any additional variables (including their timing) are consistent with the general economic environment assumed in the supervisory scenarios. If additional variables are used, the SMB, BHC, or SLHC must complete the following information for each scenario where the institution chose to use additional variables. The following instructions provide guidance for institutions that choose to use additional scenario variables to report. The Scenario Variables Schedule should be reported in a data format (not pdf) and submitted through the Reporting Central application.

A. Scenario Variable Definitions

This schedule should be used to list and define the variables used by a SMB, BHC, or SLHC that chooses to go beyond those variables defined in the mandatory supervisory scenarios provided by the FRB.

- The schedule provides space for the baseline scenario, adverse scenario, and severely adverse scenario. These sections must be completed if an institution chooses to use additional variables.
- If additional variables are used beyond the variables included in the FRB provided scenarios, list those variable names in the column titled “Variable Name.”
- Variable definitions should be provided in the column titled “Variable Definition.” Variable definitions should include a description of the variable (e.g., “real GDP”) and the denomination and/or frequency of the variable (e.g., “billions of 2005 dollars” or “in percent, average of monthly values”).
- The forecasts and historical data for all of the additional scenario variables should be constructed on the same basis. Thus, if a variable is, over history, constructed as an average, its forecast should be interpreted as an average as well.

The following definitions and basis (i.e. period-average or period-end) of the financial market variables were included in the 2013 mandatory supervisory scenarios and are provided as an example for institutions to describe any additional scenario variables used in its stress test³:

- o U.S. 10-year Treasury yield: Quarterly average of the yield on 10-year U.S. Treasury bonds.
- o U.S. mortgage rate: Quarterly average of weekly series of Freddie Mac data.
- o U.S. Dow Jones Total Stock Market Index: End of quarter value, Dow Jones.
- o U.S. Market Volatility Index (VIX): Chicago Board Options Exchange converted to quarterly by using the maximum value in any quarter.
- For convenience, the schedule provides space for ten additional variables per scenario, but any number of variables may be reported, depending on the variables actually used in the scenario. Extra lines may be created as needed. The same variables do not necessarily have to be included in each scenario.
- SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs should include all economic and financial market variables that were important in projecting results and are in addition to those provided by the FRB, including those that affect only a subset of portfolios or positions. For example, if asset prices in a specific sector had a meaningful impact, then the assumed level of prices and projections should be included; or, if bankruptcy filings affect credit card loss estimates, then the assumed levels of these loss estimates should be reported if used in the projections.
- SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs should also include any variables capturing regional or local economic or asset value conditions, such as regional unemployment rates or regional housing prices, if these were used in the projections.
- SMBs, BHCs, and SLHCs should include historical data, as well as projections, for any macroeconomic, regional, local, or financial market variables that are not generally available. Historical data for these variables can be included in a separate document.

B. All Scenarios

- The Scenario Variables Schedule should be submitted when additional variables are used beyond those provided by the regulators.

3. See the following for more information on the 2013 supervisory scenarios: <http://www.federalreserve.gov/newsevents/press/bcreg/bcreg20121115a1.pdf>.

General Instructions

- Variable names and definitions should be consistent throughout the worksheets in the schedule.
- List quarterly values for the variables starting with the last realized value (actual 12/31) through the end of the planning horizon (projected quarter one through projected quarter nine). Reporting Central does not allow variable values with decimal places on the Scenario Variable Schedule. For variables that are not reported in thousands (such as ratios or rates) the respondent should provide the unit of measure in the Variable Definition field to indicate the metrics of a given variable. For example, if Interest Rate is the Variable Name, the corresponding Variable Definition should identify the metrics in which the data are reported (basis points, 1 as 1%; and 554 as 5.54%, etc.).
- The Scenario Variables Schedule should be submitted in data format (not pdf) through the Reporting Central application.

C. DFA Stress Test Baseline Scenario

Respondents should report the values of any additional variables generated for the DFA stress test baseline scenario.

D. DFA Stress Test Adverse Scenario

Respondents should report the values of any additional variables generated for the DFA stress test adverse scenario.

E. DFA Stress Test Severely Adverse Scenario

Respondents should report the values of any additional variables generated for the DFA stress test severely adverse scenario.

RESULTS SCHEDULES

The Results Schedules are composed of seven supporting schedules: a Summary Schedule, which summarizes key results from the Baseline, Adverse, and Severely Adverse Scenarios; and supporting schedules with Income Statement, Balance Sheet, and Capital Statement details. Each supporting schedule has three versions: one each for the Baseline Scenario, the Adverse Scenario, and the Severely Adverse Scenario.

Detailed instructions for the Income Statement and Balance Sheet schedules follow in the sections below.

Summary Schedule

This schedule summarizes key results reported on the Income Statement and Balance Sheet schedules for the Baseline, Adverse, and Severely Adverse Scenarios. No action is required by institutions to complete this schedule as this summary data schedule will be populated automatically from the Income Statement and Balance Sheet schedules.

Income Statement Schedule

For the Income Statement schedule, MDRM codes corresponding to the related FR Y-9C and Call Report line items are provided for many of the line items. Respondents should report income and loss data on a quarterly basis and not on a cumulative or year-to-date basis. When applicable, the definitions of the SMB's, BHC's, and SLHC's projections should map to the definitions outlined by the corresponding MDRM code within the FR Y-9C and Call Report. The SMB, BHC, or SLHC should include income or losses tied to the relevant balances reported on the Balance Sheet schedule.

General Instructions

This schedule collects various income statement items similar to items found on Schedules HI, HI-A, and HI-B on the FR Y-9C or Schedules RI, RI-A, and RI-B on the Call Report. Net charge-offs on this schedule is defined as gross charge-offs less recoveries for the various line items. As stated in the FR Y-9C instructions, institutions should also include write-downs to fair values on loans (and leases) transferred to the held-for-sale account during the calendar year-to-date that occurred when (1) the institution decided to sell loans that were not originated or otherwise acquired with the intent to sell and (2) the fair value of those loans had declined for any reason other than a change in the general market level of interest or foreign exchange rates.

For those institutions or consolidated subsidiaries required to establish and maintain an allocated transfer risk reserve, as specified in Section 905(a) of the International Lending Supervision Act of 1983, in the agency regulations implementing the Act (Subpart D of Federal Reserve Regulation K), and in any guidelines or instructions issued by the Federal Reserve, columns A and B of part I of schedule HI-B include loans and leases charged off against and amounts recovered, respectively, through the allocated transfer risk reserve. These instructions

Memoranda items:Line Item 25 Other than temporary impairment (OTTI) losses:

Report other than temporary impairment losses, as defined in the FR Y-9C report, Schedule HI, Memo item 17(a) and the Call Report, Schedule RI, Memo item 14.a.

Line Items 26 through 43

These line items should be used to list the projected segment amounts of non-interest income, non-interest expense, and all other gains (losses) that exceed 15% of each line item, respectively.

- The measurement to determine if segments of non-interest income, non-interest expense, and all other gains (losses) are greater than 15 percent should be performed for the initial period (actual as of 12/31) and amounts should be reported for projected quarters one through nine if a category is greater than 15 percent as of the actual 12/31 period (even if the value of the category item decreases to less than 15 percent in the projected periods).

General Instructions

- These line items must be completed for each scenario if a segment of non-interest income, non-interest expense, and all other gains (losses) are greater than 15 percent as of the actual 12/31 period.
- Segment names and definitions should be consistent throughout the Income Statement schedule.
- List the quarterly values for the segments starting with the last realized value (actual 12/31) through the end of the planning horizon (projected quarter one through projected quarter nine).
- Enter all amounts as levels rather than as changes or growth rates (for example, the dollar value of income from fiduciary activities).

Line Items 26-31 Itemize and describe amounts greater than 15 percent of non-interest income (Line item 16):

List and describe specific segments of non-interest income that exceed 15 percent of “total non-interest income” line item 16 as of the actual 12/31 period.

Line Items 32-37 Itemize and describe amounts greater than 15 percent of non-interest expense (Line item 17):

List and describe specific segments of non-interest expense that exceed 15 percent of “total non-interest expense” line item 17 as of the actual 12/31 period.

Line Items 38-43 Itemize and describe amounts greater than 15 percent of all other gains (losses) (Line item 22):

List and describe specific segments of all other gains (losses) that exceed 15 percent of “all other gains/losses” line item 22 as of the actual 12/31 period.

Balance Sheet Schedule

For the Balance Sheet schedule, MDRM codes corresponding to the related FR Y-9C and Call Report line items are provided for many of the line items. When applicable, the definitions of the SMB's, BHC's, and SLHC's projections should map to the definitions outlined by the corresponding MDRM code within the FR Y-9C and Call Report. The SMB, BHC, or SLHC should report balances that are tied to the relevant income or losses reported on the Income Statement schedule.

Line Items 1 through 15 Loans

For each scenario used, input the loan balance projections in the various line items in this schedule, net of any unearned income. Domestic refers to portfolios in the domestic U.S. offices (as defined in the FR Y-9C and Call Report), and International refers to portfolios outside of the domestic U.S. offices.

Balance Sheet Schedule: Capital Section

This section collects projections of components of equity capital and regulatory capital, components of assets and liabilities, and deferred tax asset items. When applicable, the definitions of the SMB's, BHC's, and SLHC's projections should map to the definitions outlined by the corresponding MDRM code within the FR Y-9C and Call Report.

The projections should clearly show any proposed capital actions or other scenario-dependent actions that would affect the SMB's, BHC's, and SLHC's regulatory capital, including any assumptions required under the FRB's final stress test rule. A BHC or SLHC is required to make the following assumptions regarding its capital actions over the planning horizon under the DFA stress test:

- (1) For the first quarter of the planning horizon, the BHC or SLHC must take into account its actual capital actions as of the end of that quarter; and
- (2) For each of the second through ninth quarters of the planning horizon, a BHC or SLHC must include in the projections of capital - (i) an assumption of no redemption or repurchase of any capital instrument that is eligible for inclusion in the numerator of a regulatory capital ratio; (ii) an assumption of no issuances of common stock or preferred stock, except for issuances related to expensed employee compensation or in connection with a planned merger or acquisition to the extent that the merger or acquisition is reflected in the company's pro forma balance sheet estimates; and (iii) make reasonable assumptions regarding payments of dividends consistent with internal capital needs and projections.

A BHC, SMB, or SLHC should measure its regulatory capital levels and regulatory capital ratios for each quarter in accordance with the rules that would be in effect during that quarter.

MDRM codes in this section reference both Advanced Approach and Non-Advanced Approach MDRMs. As noted, institutions should provide projections consistent with its quarterly Call Report and FR Y-9C filings. For example, if an institution is not subject to an Advanced Approach capital framework, reporting in this section will reflect non-advanced approach MDRMs. It is expected that this will be case for the majority of organizations filing the FR Y-16 form. Use of Advanced Approach MDRMs may be utilized in the atypical instance that an institution is part of a larger company that is subject to the Advanced Approach capital framework.

Line Item 40 Unrealized gains (losses) on AFS securities:

Report unrealized gains (losses) on AFS securities, as defined in the FR Y-9C, Schedule HC-R, Part I, item 9.A and the Call Report, Schedule RC-R, Part I, item 9.A. The reporting of net unrealized gains (losses) on AFS securities will differ for companies that "opt-out" and for those that "opt-in" of the requirement to include components of AOCI adjustments (i.e. unrealized holding gains and losses) in Common Equity Tier 1 Capital.

Opt-out Companies: Report the net unrealized gains (losses) on AFS securities, as defined in the FR Y-9C, Schedule HC-R, Part I, item 9.A and the Call Report, Schedule RC-R, Part I, item 9.A. Per the FR Y-9C and Call Report instructions, this line item represents the amount of net unrealized gains (losses) on available-for-sale securities, net of applicable taxes, that is included in Schedule HC, item 26.b. and Schedule RC, item 26.b, "Accumulated other comprehensive income."

Opt-In Companies: Advanced approaches institutions that must "opt-in" and non-advanced approaches companies that decide to "opt-in" must calculate the net unrealized holding gains (losses) on AFS securities and report actual data for Balance Sheet Statement line item 40. Line item 40 will not be derived for AOCI opt-in institutions and must be input manually.

Line Item 41 Deferred tax asset:

Report deferred tax asset, as defined in the FR Y-9C, Schedule HC-R, Part I, item 8 and the Call Report,

QUALITATIVE SUPPORTING INFORMATION

APPENDIX A

Each SMB, BHC, and SLHC is required under the final stress test rule to submit a summary of the qualitative information supporting its projections. Supporting information should include sufficient information to inform a third party of an institution's general approach and assumptions, but remain summary in nature. Companies should provide appropriate references to internal documents that provide more detail and support for the items to be discussed in the submission, such as detail that supports model documentation that examination staff may review during an on or offsite follow-up. All companies must submit the qualitative supporting information in Adobe Acrobat PDF format.

The qualitative supporting information summary file should be titled as “ReportID_RSSD_SUMMARY_MMDDYY”.

- The “ReportID” in the file name should be as follows for the following respondents:
 - o “FRY16” for BHCs, SLHCs, and SMBs
 - o “OCCDFAST1050” for national banks and savings banks
 - o “FDICDFAST1050” for nonmember banks and state savings banks
- The “RSSD” in the file name is the institution specific identifier for a respondent.
- The “MMDDYY” should be the as-of date of the stress test cycle (for example, 123115 for the 2016 stress test cycle).

The purpose of the summary document is to provide an overview of the stress testing process as required in the Agencies' final stress test rules and as is repeated in Appendix A. Significant detailed information, such as program language coding that accompanies model estimations (for example, SAS coding) should not be included in the summary document. Detailed documents will be requested and reviewed as part of the supervisory process. Sections that should be addressed in the summary document are listed below, as well as a description of items that should be included.

1. Summary and Governance

Executive summary, general risk overview, including a description of the risks used in the stress test; summary reports describing the stress testing process, senior management and board roles; internal governance and model risk management practices; and any other items related to the overall process. Each institution should describe how senior management provided the board of directors with sufficient information to facilitate the board's full understanding of the stress testing used by the bank and allow for the appropriate level of challenge of assumptions and outcomes.

In addition, the following subsections (1.A through 1.D) should be included as part of the summary and governance section:

A. Description of the Types of Risks Included in the Stress Test

For each part of the Results schedule and the Scenario Variables schedule, each institution should submit supporting qualitative information that clearly describes the types of risks and exposures captured in the stress test scenarios for all lines of business and activities. This includes information about risks that may threaten or adversely affect the institution's capital position through increased losses, reduced revenues, and changes in the balance sheet or risk-weighted assets. The information should discuss the extent to which risks are wholly or only partially covered by the stress tests (for example, if not all aspects of interest rate risk are captured by the tests with the given scenarios provided).

APPENDIX A

B. Summary Description of the Methodologies used in the Stress Test

For each part of the Results schedule and the Scenario Variables schedule, the SMB, BHC, or SLHC should submit supporting information that clearly describes the methodology used to produce the projections. Each SMB, BHC, or SLHC should include a summary description of how it translated the macroeconomic and financial variables from the supervisory scenarios into its projections and technical details of any underlying statistical methods used. Information should be provided for all elements of the stress tests, including loss estimation, revenue estimation, projections of the balance sheet and risk-weighted assets, and capital levels and ratios. Where judgment is an essential part of the projection, each institution should describe the rationale and magnitude, as well as the process involved to ensure consistency of projections with scenario conditions. Furthermore, the institutions should include thorough discussion of any material deviations from these instructions and how they decided upon the materiality of such deviations.

Discussion of methodologies should be consistent with expectations in existing supervisory guidance on stress testing issued by the agencies. In particular, the institution should provide a summary of the design, theory, and logic underlying the methodologies used.

If third-party models are used, an institution should provide summary information about those models, including model design, key assumptions, known limitations, and implementation and execution.

Each SMB, BHC, or SLHC should provide credible support for all key assumptions used to derive loss and revenue estimates, including assumptions related to the components of loss, severity of loss, drivers of revenue, and any known weaknesses in the translation of assumptions into loss and revenue estimates. Each institution should demonstrate that these assumptions are clearly conditioned on the stated macroeconomic and financial scenarios and are consistent with stated business strategies including but not limited to mergers, acquisitions, or divestitures of business lines or entities and changes in strategic direction. If the institution's models rely upon historical relationships, describe the historical data used and clearly describe why these relationships are expected to be maintained in each scenario. The impact of assumptions concerning new growth or changes to credit policy on forecasted loss estimates relative to historical performance should be clearly explained.

Institutions should provide summary information on the specific assumptions used to calculate regulatory capital, including a discussion of any proposed capital distributions. When appropriate, clearly state assumptions related to the corporate tax rate and the projection of the deferred tax assets. In situations where the SMB, BHC, or SLHC choose not to project components of the balance sheet, those components should be held constant at the last current level and the SMB, BHC, or SLHC should explain why the held constant assumption is appropriate in the given scenario.

Each SMB, BHC, and SLHC should submit any other summary information and documentation necessary to support or explain its capital calculations. For example, an institution could show the calculations related to the projections of the deferred tax asset for regulatory capital purposes.

While judgment is an essential part of risk measurement and risk management, including loss forecasting, institutions should not be over-reliant on judgment to prepare their loss estimations without providing documentation or evidence of transparency and discipline around the process. Each SMB, BHC, and SLHC should provide support for any judgment applied or qualitative adjustments made and explain how they are appropriate and in line with scenario conditions.

C. Explanation of the Most Significant Causes for the Changes in Regulatory Capital Ratios

For each part of the Results schedule and the Scenario Variables schedule, each SMB, BHC, and SLHC should provide a clear explanation of the changes in regulatory capital ratios from the stress test scenarios over the planning horizon. For instance, an institution may indicate that a major component of the reduction in regulatory capital ratios resulted from deterioration in the quality of its retail credit exposures over the planning horizon. The explanation should take into account the risks identified and describe the changes in capital by material income statement and balance sheet statement line items affected by the stress test scenario.

D. Use of Stress Test Results

Companies should provide summary information as to how they use these stress test results in the normal course of business, including in the capital planning, assessment of capital adequacy, and risk management practices of the company. This summary should describe the manner in which the stress test is used for key decisions about capital adequacy, including capital actions and capital contingency plans. The company should indicate the extent to which this stress test is used in conjunction with other capital assessment tools, especially if the stress test may not necessarily capture a company's full range of risks, exposures, activities, and vulnerabilities that have the potential to affect capital adequacy. In addition, a company should include summary information as to how post-stress capital results remain aligned with its internal capital goals. The company should mention any cases in which post-stress capital results are not aligned with a company's internal capital goals, and describe options that senior management and the board would consider to bring them into alignment.

2. Scenarios

Summary of the methodology, models, and validation activities related to the process used to translate macro variables, including the use of additional scenario variables, if applicable. If additional scenario variables are used beyond the supervisory scenario variables provided by the Agencies, each respondent should complete the scenario variables schedule as previously indicated in the reporting instructions.

In addition, each institution should include summary information supporting any additional scenario variables used to conduct the DFA stress tests. The information should detail the rationale behind including additional scenario variables and the process for projecting additional variables, including the linkage with the macroeconomic and financial scenarios provided by the FRB.

3. Capital

Summary of the methodology, models, and validation activities related to regulatory capital, explanations of proposed capital actions, options to maintain internally established capital goals on a post-stress basis, and an explanation of causes for changes in regulatory capital ratios. This information should support the Balance Sheet schedule line items 40 to 54.

4. Loans

Summary of the methodology, model, and validation activities related to each loan portfolio reported in total loans and leases, including the associated ALLL. This information should support Balance Sheet schedule line items 1 to 16 and Income Statement schedule line items 1 to 14.

5. Securities

Summary of methodology, model, and validation activities related to the projections of HTM and AFS security balances, unrealized losses, and OTTI. This information should support Balance Sheet schedule line items 17 to 26 and Income Statement schedule line items 20 to 22 and 25.

6. Pre-provision Net Revenue

Summary of methodology, model, and validation activities related to the estimates of net interest income, margins, fees, funding costs and related items. This information should support Income Statement schedule line items 15 to 18.

7. Balance Sheet

Summary methodology, model, and validation activities related to the balance sheet estimation, such as loan balances. This information should support Balance Sheet schedule line items 1 to 39.

The summary qualitative supporting information should not include embedded files and should be submitted in Adobe Acrobat PDF format. The file size limit is 50 MB. If the file needs to be split up into smaller files, the combined file size limit is 200 MB. When submitting multiple files in order to meet the file size limit, the file name should indicate the content of files submitted using the seven qualitative supporting information summary categories discussed above.
