Subject: Truth in Lending

Please do not change anything related to the Truth In Lending Act.

Please support the "Schumer Box," and simplified tables in the "change in terms" notices.

Lenders are doing just fine - as their earnings and stock prices confirm.

Companies do not need unbridled opportunity to take advantage of American citizens. You are inviting a social Darwinist environment.

As the conservative Winston Churchill said, "We are for private enterprise with all its ingenuity, thrift and contrivance, and we believe it can flourish best within a strict and well-understood system of prevention and correction of abuses."
