I have been completely outraged as to the practices of Discover card. I have had this card for an extremely long time and I have always been a customer in good standing. Without my knowledge Discover card increased my percentage rate to 20.99% from 14.00 %. When I questioned why the large increase they claimed that they can look at my other cards and if I have outstanding balances they can increase my interest rate. This is the biggest scam out there yet. I am doing my best to pay off this balance and close my account.

Something needs to be done to regulate these credit card companies. They need to stop their scamming ways!!!

Thank you,
