Dear Email comments,

All the people who have the power to stop these ridiculous credit card situations are making many, many more dollars than the people who are using credit cards. The average person must use their credit to just get by. You need to do something to help all the people with their situations.

You as lawmakers and law-enacters need to help you constituents with this terrible problem. Do they want to have more people on the welfare roles?

Sincerely,

Ms. Cynthia Austin Dalen
